

Creating Accessible Economic Security for everyone

Investor Memo Request

A high-angle, satellite-style photograph of the Earth from space, showing the curvature of the planet and the blue of the oceans. The text is overlaid on the darker, landmass portions of the image.

“What chance is there for our civilization if our wealthiest country cannot provide access to economic security for its own?”

“And when we do?”

The Pathfinder Investor Memorandum is available on request.

It’s intended for accredited investors — including individuals, family offices, foundations, corporations, and other accredited entities — and for those reviewing the opportunity on their behalf.

If you’d like a copy, please email info@pathfinder-strategic.com with your name, organization, and a brief note on your interest.

Any investment opportunity in Pathfinder Economic Services Inc (PES) is available only to accredited investors. Accredited investor status will need to be verified, in accordance with applicable U.S. securities law requirements, before any investment is finalized.
